

Ashley Kunze
Graphic Design 3
Social Conditions & Causality: Questionnaire
23 October 2014

- How much of the day is your phone on your person or in your hand?
 - Pretty much all day
 - Most of the day
 - Half of the day
 - Part of the day
- What do you primarily use your phone to do?
 - Coordinate daily activities (making plans, scheduling)
 - Maintain personal relationships (texting, social media)
 - Get information (Google, news)
- What brings you the strongest sense of community?
 - Having neighbors
 - Sharing loyalties to a sports team with others
 - Staying connected to your relatives and friends who live in other places
- With whom is it more important to maintain a daily connection?
 - People in your local community
 - People similar to you who live in other communities
- When you feel like chatting, what do you usually do?
 - Find a friend nearby
 - Call a friend and talk on the phone
 - Text a friend
- What is the first thing you usually do when you're waiting alone (in line, at the doctor's office, at a restaurant, etc.)?
 - Talk to the person sitting next to you
 - Check social media
 - Read news articles
 - Text someone
 - Check your schedule/to do list
- About how many people do you maintain a relationship with (make contact with them and get an update on their life at least twice a year)?
 - 1-10
 - 10-50
 - 50-100
 - 100-150
 - 150+
- On average, how often do you use your phone?
 - It's always in my hand
 - It's always on me, and I check it every few minutes all day long
 - It's always on or near me, and I check it every few minutes at work, and not as often at home

- It's almost always near me; I check it frequently when I'm not busy, but sometimes neglect it for 2-3 hours at a time when I am busy
 - I usually check it every 2-3 hours, no matter what I'm doing
 - I only check it a few times a day
 - Other:
- How often do you experience "Phantom Vibration Syndrome" (you mistakenly think you felt your phone vibrate even when it didn't)?
 - Multiple times a day
 - Once a day
 - Once a week
 - Once a month
 - I've never experienced it
- How often do you check your phone when you're on a date or out with friends?
 - Not at all
 - At least once an hour
 - Every time it vibrates
 - Every few minutes
- How much does it bother you when your friends/significant other check their phone while spending time with you?
 - A lot
 - Sometimes, but not usually
 - I don't care
 - I don't even notice
- When you're walking somewhere, how much do you use your phone?
 - I use it the whole time, except to occasionally check to make sure I don't run into something
 - I use it the whole time, but I look up when a person passes by
 - I don't get it out unless it vibrates; then I check it, and then keeping using it until I have to look up
 - I don't get it out unless it vibrates; then I check it, then put it away
 - I don't use it at all
- When your phone vibrates and you stop to check it, how long do you stay on it?
 - Just a second
 - 5 minutes
 - 15 minutes
 - 30+ minutes
- How many people do you Skype/FaceTime regularly (at least twice a year)?
 - 0-1
 - 1-5
 - 5-10
 - 10+
- To you, what is the greatest benefit of texting?

- It's fast
 - It's convenient
 - It gives me a chance to think about what I'm going to say before sending it
- Do you think it's important to make conversation with strangers/neighbors/people you don't know very well?
 - Very important
 - Somewhat important
 - Not important
 - Maybe important, but I don't know