

Miss the good ole days? So do we. Grab some cozy blankets, make some popcorn and gather around the TV to watch a Disney classic together.

Get your safari gear on and grab your binoculars! It's time to head to the zoo! This is a great activity for families with kids of all ages. Pack a lunch and go see some cool animals!

picnic in the park

As simple as that. Pack up a lunch for the family and go to the park. Bring a baseball and a glove, a frisbee, or even a kickball and have some fun afterwards!

back to neverland

No one is too old for this activity. Strip the sheets from your bed, grab a few blankets and build a fort right in your living room. Pile it high with cozy pillows and play a board game together.

nature walk

Not too often do you get all this neatness in one location. That's called nature. Go enjoy it! Who knows? Maybe you'll run into an antelope, or a fox, or some kind of mountain beast. How neat is that?

family cake boss

Mix up a generic cupcake batter and split it up between everyone in the family. Everyone gets to add whatever they want to their own mix. Bake and decorate them and see who the master chef is in this family. Don't be afraid to be creative!

bowling palooza

Hope you don't care
what people think of you because you might look ridiculous. Go bowling together and see who can come up with the funniest technique.

caution: cute puppies ahead

Don't have a zoo near you? Go to the animal shelter and play with the puppies for a while! Be on guard, though. You'll probably want to adopt all of them.

Ay, matey! Grab ye treasure map. Let's go hunt for gold! I better be warnin' ya, though. There be pirates huntin' too. Don't get caught by the Captain. Good luck to ya. And remember: x marks the spot. Arrg.
